

MMU Sadopur ranked 3rd among
"Top 10 Emerging Universities in India"

With years of experience in providing quality education in different areas, individual institutes gaining the prestigious university status is not a very recent phenomenon. Making a mark in the education world, Maharishi Markandeshwar University, Sadopur-Ambala has been ranked at the 3rd position under the category of "Top 10 Emerging Universities in India" in the comprehensive ranking of Universities in India by the Higher Education Review (HER) Magazine.

The survey relied on some important parameters viz.-a-viz. Academic Faculty and Publication, Infrastructure, Placement, University Background, Alumni Opinion, etc.. The University Survey represents the viewpoints of several renowned experienced business leaders from the industry and academia. The nominations were evaluated and shortlisted by a panel of Educationalists, HR Recruiters and the HER Editorial team based on the data inputs provided by the institutes. This will eventually benefit the student community to make the accurate decisions about their study destinations.
